

Literacy Project of the Rotary E-Club of the Southwest USA, District 5510

Kampala. Uganda
Rotary Club of Kampala East

On September 28, 2013 seven members of the Rotary Club of Kampala East visited one of the marginalized schools called Sakabusolo Primary School located about 32 km from Kampala city.

Welcoming remarks by the Headmaster

Literacy Project of the Rotary E-Club of the Southwest USA, District 5510

Kampala. Uganda
Rotary Club of Kampala East

On September 28, 2013 seven members of the Rotary Club of Kampala East visited one of the marginalized schools called Sakabusolo Primary School located about 32 km from Kampala city.

Club President Daniel is addressing the Rotarians as Rotarian Daphine pulls out the booklets

Literacy Project of the Rotary E-Club of the Southwest USA, District 5510

Kampala. Uganda
Rotary Club of Kampala East

On September 28, 2013 seven members of the Rotary Club of Kampala East visited one of the marginalized schools called Sakabusolo Primary School located about 32 km from Kampala city.

President Daniel is handing over copies of the stories to the Headmaster

Literacy Project of the Rotary E-Club of the Southwest USA, District 5510

Kampala. Uganda
Rotary Club of Kampala East

On September 28, 2013 seven members of the Rotary Club of Kampala East visited one of the marginalized schools called Sakabusolo Primary School located about 32 km from Kampala city.

The Head girl is reading the first story in the book to the audience

Literacy Project of the Rotary E-Club of the Southwest USA, District 5510

Kampala. Uganda
Rotary Club of Kampala East

On September 28, 2013 seven members of the Rotary Club of Kampala East visited one of the marginalized schools called Sakabusolo Primary School located about 32 km from Kampala city.

Students holding up their stories

